

Positive Behaviour for Learning at NBA

Low and medium level conduct, consequences and sanctions

Low Level

Medium Level

Low Level Behaviours

Inappropriate behaviour in the canteen or other out of class location

- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Verbal warning given to the student
- Break time detention
- Referral to KSC due to persistence
- Parent meeting due to persistence
- Logged on the behaviour tracker

Disruptive behaviour, interfering with teaching and learning

- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Verbal warning given to the student
- Move student to buddy class where they can work without distracting others
- Parent meeting due to persistence
- Logged on the behaviour tracker

Being disrespectful to any adult – regardless of designation

- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Break time detention
- Referral to KSC due to persistence
- Parent meeting with SMT due to persistence
- Formal letter of apology

Persistently off task or not completing homework

- Verbal warning given to the student
- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Parent meeting with class teacher and KSC due to persistence
- Interventions put in place to encourage student accountability

Incorrect uniform, shoes, accessories and jewellery

- Parents informed of uniform expectations via ClassDojo or Email
- Parents requested to collect student or bring correct uniform/shoes to school after non-compliance for a third time
- Smart watches, incorrect jewellery and accessories confiscated and returned to student at the end of the week

Failing to comply with classroom rules

- Verbal warning given to the student
- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Break time detention
- Parent meeting with class teacher and KSC due to persistence
- Referral to SMT if behaviours persist
- Interventions put in place to encourage student accountability

Use of bad language and unkind remarks

- Verbal warning given to the student
- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Break time detention
- Parent meeting with class teacher and KSC due to persistence
- Formal apology

Choosing to persist in low level behaviour misconduct

- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Break time detention
- Parent meeting with class teacher and KSC due to persistence
- Referral to SMT if behaviours persist
- Behaviour card implemented

Physical interactions – pushing and shoving

- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Break time detention
- Internal reflection/suspension
- Parent meeting with class teacher and KSC due to persistence
- Referral to SMT if behaviours persist

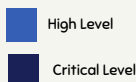

Low and Medium level behaviours will be dealt with in accordance to the Positive Behaviour for Learning appendix. Persistence and extreme behaviours will result to situations being dealt with as per SLT and the CEO's professional discretion and directives.

Medium Level Behaviours

Positive Behaviour for Learning at NBA

High and Critical level conduct, consequences and sanctions

High Level Behaviours

Inappropriate use of mobile phones and any other devices

- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Verbal warning given to the student
- Break time detention
- Referral to KSC due to persistence
- Parent meeting due to persistence
- Logged on the behaviour tracker

Stealing property belonging to school or other students

- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Verbal warning given to the student
- Move student to buddy class where they can work without distracting others
- Parent meeting due to persistence
- Logged on the behaviour tracker

Vandalising or breaking school property

- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Break time detention
- Parent meeting with SMT and KSC
- Formal letter of apology
- Repayment of damages

Bullying – Cyber, Emotional, Physical and Social

- Verbal warning given to the student
- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Parent meeting with class teacher and KSC due to persistence
- Interventions put in place to encourage student accountability
- Internal reflection for one day

Intentional verbal abuse or physical violence towards a student of staff member

- Parent meeting with KSC and SMT
- Referral to SLT if behaviours persist
- Internal reflection for one day
- Behaviour Card
- Formal apology

Persistent refusal to comply with school rules and expectations by continual display of ongoing misconduct

- Parent meeting with KSC and SMT due to persistence
- Referral to SLT if behaviours persist
- Interventions put in place to encourage student accountability
- Behaviour Card
- Block letter

Critical Level Behaviours

Displaying anti-social behaviour e.g. intimidating others, aggression and or dangerous outburst

- Parent formally summoned for meeting with KSC, CT and SMT
- Behaviour card
- Parent meeting with class teacher and KSC due to persistence
- One day suspension
- Internal reflection

Leaving school setting or classroom without permission

- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Block letter
- Internal reflection
- Parent meeting with
- Referral to SMT if behaviours persist

Deliberately setting off the fire alarm

- Parents informed via ClassDojo or email by the class teacher
- Block letter
- Internal reflection/suspension
- Parent meeting with KSC and SMT

High and Critical level behaviours will be dealt with in accordance to the Positive Behaviour for Learning appendix. Persistence and extreme behaviours will result to Permanent Exclusion (Excluded from the school with immediate effect) - Please refer to the NBA Behaviour Policy.